Travel Assistance Services

Liberty Mutual Insurance is pleased to offer travel assistance services through an arrangement with UnitedHealthcare Global.

What is Travel Assistance?

Travel Assistance provides 24/7/365 access to pre-travel, personal, and emergency assistance with travel-related problems and circumstances.

Who is eligible and when?

Employees who are covered under group life insurance policies issued by Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston are eligible to use Travel Assistance services. Employees can access these services while traveling for business or personal reasons at least 100 miles from home and for fewer than 90 consecutive days. Dependents traveling with the employee are also eligible.

What types of services are available?

- Worldwide destination intelligence: Get weather, currency, culture, embassy, and immunization and vaccination information.
- Travel: Receive assistance with lost passports and credit cards, ticket replacement, emergency messages, emergency travel arrangements, translation, legal referral, and emergency cash advances.
- Medical evacuation and repatriation: Get assistance with emergency medical evacuation, transportation to join a patient, transportation home for unattended minor children, and repatriation of mortal remains.
- Security and political evacuation: Obtain assistance with security intelligence and evacuation arrangements in the event of a threatening political or security situation.
